The class of '57 is the first to graduate from Arlington High School's new one and one-half million dollar building. This building was made necessary by the tremendous growth of Arlington's population -- over five hundred per cent in the last six years. The large population increase and the accompanying crowded condition of our old building was largely a result of the many workers brought in to this area by the aircraft industry. Since aviation has played such an important part in Arlington's development, we have built the theme of this, the twelfth volume of the Colt Corral, around flight.

Dedication

He "is so kind and condescending, stoops so low and is so bending," as to devote his time and energy to the education of Arlington High School's students.

It is impossible for him to teach just biology and physics -- he cannot help giving an informal education that is not covered in the textbooks. He is loved and admired not only by his classes; for as a sponsor of the Camera Club and the graduating class of 1957, his personal popularity has climbed to even greater heights.

For his generosity, humor, and unlimited understanding, we dedicate the 1957 Colt Corral to

The Colts came through with their second win against the McKinney Lions September 28. Earl Hinson scored the first touchdown with a pitchout from quarterback David Snider. The first half ended with a 7-0 lead over the Lions. Kenneth Williams, Ronnie Graves, and David Snider each tallied for the Colts, bringing the final score to 26-13.

Terrell 14

Unbeaten Arlington fought off a last minute attack to down the previously unbeaten Terrell Tigers October 5 in a grudge battle there. This is the first time the Colts, now in 4A, have been able to knock over the 2A Tigers since 1951. David Snider possibly saved the game for the Colts by intercepting one of Bill Flower's passes with just 59 seconds left in the game.

The Corsicana Tigers, underdogs by two touchdowns, upset the Colts October 12 at the college stadium, 28 - 13. Nearly 5,000 people were in the stands, all ready to see another AHS victory, but the hard-driving Corsicana eleven proved to be a little too much for the Colts. Bobby Mebus, John Young, and David Snider led the Colt offense as they made their bids for yardage.

The fans could be proud of the Colts the first quarter as they held the Coyotes scoreless. But what a second quarter! The Coyotes scored six touchdowns in ten minutes. The score at the half was 42 - 0, but Arlington came back in the second half to tally 13 points. Final score: 55 - 13.
